

Aedes niveus

Important vector of periodic Wuchereria bancrofti filariasis in the Philippines. Aedes niveus are thought to play a significant role in the sylvatic dengue cycle in Borneo.

<https://wrbu.si.edu/vectorspecies/mosquitoes/niveus#:~:text=Female%20Aedes%20niveus%20s.s.%20are,sylvatic%20dengue%20cycle%20in%20Borneo>

Thorax: Paratergite without scales; postpronotum without broad white scales; scutum with anterior half conspicuously pale-scaled.

Legs: Ta-I–III all dark; Fe-II without silvery spot in middle of anterior surface; Fe-III with apical dark area for ≥ 0.25 segment.

<https://wrbu.si.edu/vectorspecies/mosquitoes/niveus>